Taproot Legal

Interviews indicated that users found this page difficult to navigate and that they wanted links to quickjump to parts of the page

New pages need their section marked so that users know what part of the site they're on

About Us

Different home screen/background needed for every page to make them more distinct. This could serve as a template as every page besides contact page will have 3 subpages (How we Work, Our Team, Our Culture are subpages of the About page, for example).
